Impressive Ceremony Unites Torrance Pair

Miss Katherine Elisabeth Burmaster, daughter of Mrs. Hermann Burmaster, became the bride of Charles Ahlers Curtiss at an impressive wedding ceremony solemnized at Central Evangelical church in the presence of 200 guests Tuesday evening, June 28, at 8:30 o'clock.

Rev. F. A. Zeller of Burbank, an old friend of the couple, performed the ceremony before a floral background of varicolored gladioli and fern, arranged by Mrs. W. J. Neelands. Miss Wanda Stachowicz, accompanied at the piano by Mrs. Margaret Ockles of Orange, sang Carrie Jacobs Bond's, "I Love You Truly," and Grieg's, "Ich Liebe Dich."

The wedding procession, entering to the strains of Lohengrin's Wedding March, was led by Miss Virginia Watson, attired in pale green chiffon with green maline bandeau, and carrying pink roses. Mrs. Adele Shinn of Los Angeles, wearing yellow chiffon with matching bandeau and carrying yellow roses, was followed by the matron of honor, Mrs. Helen Neill Adams, of Escondido, who wore a shell pink chiffon frock with matching bandeau and carried pink roses.

Marilyn Modglin, flower girl, then entered, dressed in pink organdy, and scattered rose petals from a basket. The bride, who entered on the arm of her brother, Arthur E. Burmaster, of Los Angeles, was beautifully costumed in a fitted ivory satin gown made in period style with large puffed sleeves and a tulle veil caught with orange blossoms which had been worn by her mother on the occasion of her wedding 39 years ago.

The groom was attended by Dr. Verdun Thomas of Los Angeles as best man. Dr. Linus E. Adams of Escondido and M. N. Shinn of Los Angeles served as ushers. Following the ceremony Mrs. Ockles played Mendelssohn's Wedding March as the wedding party left the church.

Following a reception at the bride's home for 35 relatives and friends, Mr. and Mrs. Curtiss left for a motor trip to Lake Tahoe. Upon their return they will take up residence at the Calvert Apartments. Mrs. Curtiss is well known in Torrance, having lived here since the town was founded. She is the daughter of Torrance's first postmaster.

Mr. Curtiss, son of Mrs. C. N. Curtiss, has also been a resident of Torrance for a number of years. He is associated with the Dominguez Land Corporation.

TAYLOR-STEINHILBER WEDDING SOLEMNIZED

At a simple wedding ceremony performed at her home, 2934 Miller street, Lomita, Mable Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Gabriel Hodge, became the bride of Frank H. Steinhilber of Torrance, Tuesday evening, June 28, at 8:30 o'clock. The bride, becomingly attired in a costume of white chiffon with pale green accessories, carried an arm bouquet of tall-ma roses and orange blossoms. She was attended by Mrs. Howard Miller of Los Angeles, who wore a black chiffon frock with cerulea lace and a corsage of gardenias and maidenhair fern. Howard Miller of Los Angeles attended the groom as best man. The ceremony was performed by the Rev. Samuel Hughes, pastor of the First M. E. church of Riverside, an old friend of the bride's family. Immediately following the ceremony a reception was held for 35 guests, and Mr. and Mrs. Steinhilber left for a motor trip in the northern part of the state. Upon their return they will be at home to their friends at 1739 Gramercy avenue.

O. E. S. GROUP ENJOY NOVEL PROGRAM
Advance Night was observed by Torrance Chapter, No. 380, Order of the Eastern Star, at Masonic Temple last Thursday evening with a large group of members and visiting stars in attendance. Carrie Parks, occupying the position of worthy matron for this occasion, was presented with a handsome leather brief case. At the close of chapter the guests retired to the banquet room where a buffet supper was served. A "Voyage" theme was used as a motif for the cleverly planned, decorative management carried out by the hostesses, Mrs. Willis S. Brooks and Mrs. W. J. Neelands. Silver ships holding flowers in colors corresponding to those of the star points centered the tables and bracelets wrapped as life savers were used as favors. J. W. Cromlier, baritone, of South Gate chapter, Los Angeles, sang a group of songs. A violin group by Thomas Kendrick completed the evening's program.

Rev. and Mrs. F. A. Zeller of Burbank were Torrance visitors Tuesday.

J. W. Cromlier of Los Angeles was in Torrance last Thursday evening.

Dancing Classes Open This Week

Dancing classes for children started Tuesday morning, this week, under the direction of Miss Matilde Hoff, instructor, of Long Beach. Miss Hoff will be at Earl's Cafe, where the classes will be held in the banquet room every Tuesday and Friday morning beginning at 9 o'clock. Private instruction will be given if desired. Price for class lessons will be 50 cents and private lessons, 75 cents.

Miss Hoff is an experienced teacher and is very successful with children. Her rates are very moderate. Now that the vacation period is here, her classes offer a fine opportunity for children to be trained in a social art that is very desirable and becoming more and more necessary. Instruction to older pupils in ballroom dancing, tango, and other dances will be given if desired.

BOYES-COLLINS NUPTIALS SOLEMNIZED
The wedding of Adele Boyes, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Presentius of Long Beach, to George Collins, was performed by Rev. Clayton Montgomery of Community Presbyterian church, Lomita, Saturday evening, June 25, at 7:30 o'clock in the presence of an intimate group of relatives and friends. The church was banked with myriad blossoms and fern which formed a pretty background for the ceremony. The bride, given in marriage by her father, was beautifully attired in egg shell tulle and wore a corsage bouquet of bridal roses and lilies of the valley. She was attended by Mrs. C. G. Presentius as matron of honor, who wore yellow flowered silk voile and carried tulleman roses and violas, and Roselle Booth of Long Beach, who wore pale green voile and carried an arm bouquet of yellow roses and violas. Peggy Boyes, as flower girl, was costumed in pale blue dotted swiss with matching accessories. C. G. Presentius and Stanley Booth attended the groom. Following the ceremony a reception for more than 50 was held at the home of the bride, Mr. and Mrs. Collins left immediately for a honeymoon trip to San Francisco. Upon their return they will take up residence at 26128 Regent street, Lomita.

BIRTHDAY IS CELEBRATED
The fifth birthday of Ariel Karynoske, provided the incentive for a prettily appointed party at her home on Cabrillo avenue, Friday afternoon. Mrs. Karynoske was assisted by Mrs. W. T. Jones. At a table set on the lawn and decorated with yellow pansies and fern, a birthday cake, decorated in pink and white, was used as a centerpiece. Covers were placed for the honoree and Naomi Joyce, Jean Morgan, Ramona De Bra, Anna Lee Mann, Wallace Steinhilber and Bryant Jones. Following luncheon the afternoon was spent in games and the honoree was the recipient of many pretty birthday gifts.

OUT-OF-TOWN GUESTS ENTERTAINED
Mrs. Theresa Condeley was hostess when she entertained with a bridge luncheon at her home on Post avenue Saturday afternoon honoring Mrs. Eugenie Condeley and Mrs. Bernadette Pedderson of Hollywood. Red, white, and blue were accented in the cleverly planned Independence Day motif used throughout the decorations. Covers were placed for the honor guests and Mrs. C. N. Curtiss, Mrs. J. H. Scott, Mrs. J. V. Murray, Mrs. Roland Sanderhoff and Mrs. William Condeley. Awards for high score were received by Mrs. Eugenie Condeley and Mrs. William Condeley, while a consolation was received by Mrs. Bernadette Pedderson.

Same House—Different States
FALL RIVER, Mass. (U.P.)—Mrs. Elmer B. Young was born in Massachusetts and her mother was born in Rhode Island, yet both were born in the same house, located on South Main street. Alteration of the interstate border gave them different native states.
